ANCIENT PATHS | SPIRITUAL DISCIPLINE OF FELLOWSHIP

PSALM 133

FOR THE WEEK OF NOV 29, 2020

Sermon Outline:

Big Idea: Our participation in the fellowship of believers is the natural and needed result of our fellowship with Christ.

1. The reality of the fellowship. Psalm 133:1
2. The responsibility of the fellowship. Psalm 133:1
3. The result of the fellowship. Psalm 133:2-3

REVIEW THE PASSAGE

What comes to mind when you hear the word “fellowship”? What is the biblical understanding of fellowship? Use some examples or verses from Scripture to demonstrate the spiritual discipline of fellowship?

Psalm 133 uses the word “when” in describing the unity among brothers. What are some things that stand in opposition to the unity that God intends for us to share in the community of believers?

ASSESS YOUR LIFE

At City on a Hill, we are trying to engage in the “one-anothers” in our small groups and church body. Look at this list of six: love one another, forgive one another, serve one another, submit to one another, encourage one another, and be devoted to one another. Are you actively engaged in these? Which one is the hardest for you to do? Which one do you need to do more right now? Which one are you needing from others at this moment?

Why is good listening needed to dwell in unity and fellowship together? Are you a good listener? What are some ways that you need to grow in your listening?

APPLY THE TRUTH

Take some time to think through the relationships of the church. Who are some people that you need to be more intentional to fellowship with? What would that look like in the coming weeks?

This is a unique season to continue to fellowship with one another. What are some ways that we can continue or even grow in our fellowship right now despite the hurdles of COVID-19? How can we overcome and continue dwelling in unity?
